

the cut  off

Bio:

the cut*off members, Chad, Kyle, Jake and Jayson, grew up in a suburb of Fort Worth, Texas. In 2002, the members decided to start making music that contained elements of rock, melodic guitar riffs and a bit of southern twang. Rapidly, the band's sound matured. They began creating music which has hints of their influences from the Pixies, Toadies, Modest Mouse and others. the cut*off released its first full length album, which has caught the ears of local journalists and music critics. Currnently, the cut*off is in the recording studio creating a new e.p. and will be seaching of the right record label for distribution.
